

Final Dink 'N Drink, by Joyce Kludt

"Let's go to the Pickleball Dink and Drink! It was so fun last time in September!" Well, last Friday, which was a beautiful 80 degrees in the late afternoon, almost 100 members showed up and were happy they chose to.

Many played pickleball, often with members they'd never played with. Games to 11 were played and then four more people would rotate in. The courts were full from 4:00 to dusk, and lots of laughter was heard. Spectators enjoyed watching the games, too. We all enjoyed chatting with old friends as well as meeting new ones.

The food! Many people were heard complimenting member chefs who made BBQ Italian sausage sliders with grilled onions and peppers, homemade chili, green salad with pecans and cranberries and scrumptious pumpkin bars and brownies.

This was our last Dink 'N Drink of the season and we're already looking forward to when these fun monthly events start up in the spring!! Kudos to Sheryl Ruth for organizing these fun socials.
