

Phyllis Seeger tries to hold onto the Paddle Battle plaque, but Michelle McQuay takes it away!

It's hard to say which was the harder fought battle – Tournament Director Michelle McQuay wrestling the trophy from visiting Director Phyllis Seeger or the play on the courts for the Pickleball Paddle Battle vs Silver Creek Country Club! Unfortunately, co-Director Sherry Benz was out of town for the event, but still put in a lot of work.

Michelle had her team working to provide an amazing spread of food that was prepared by the VGCC team, and provided well balanced teams and competition between our two Clubs. While VGCC took possession of the trophy (we now lead 2-1), many matches were decided by close scores or determined by extra points. Each team played four games, and only two teams were undefeated.

Villager Team 5, comprised of Kevin Prest and Rick McKee and Villager Team 7, comprised of Reggie Smith and Michael Actman were the two undefeated teams – kudos to them for pulling through for the Club! The overall resulting score of Villagers 23 – SCVCC 9 does not reflect the quality of play. Rick was heard to comment he had to play his best to win against well-matched teams.

We look forward to returning to Silver Creek in the fall and continuing the competition!
